

From: Robert Gomez
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 11:27am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

As a network engineer, I feel that the proposed settlement doesn't go far enough. Microsoft has already formed a monopoly and the actions taken against it should focus on breaking Microsoft's existing monopoly not just on preventing future problems. I would suggest either forcing Microsoft to aid its former competitors or splitting Microsoft into several pieces.

Robert Gomez
Senior Technical Analyst
Neurosource
515 North State Street, Suite 1700
Chicago, IL 60610
Email: rgomez@neurosource.com
Phone: (312) 670-3944
